

MARY OREB

in 2-4-08 interview by CSU Fullerton student, Taran Schindler.

Remembers how her wages helped her family.

Oh, no, my sister, I had another sister she came with me. We bought furniture. We got a couch first, we got a brand new stove for her (their mother), then we got a washing machine for her, we went down the line and that's what we did. We did not bank it for ourselves. Maybe a couple of bucks for a pair of nylon stockings and stuff like that. Contributing more or less for the house. I had two brothers, two younger brothers.